

Home - Gabrielle Aplin

Verse 1

I'm a phoe-nix in the wa-ter I'm a fish that's learned to fly and I've al ways been a daugh-ter but fea-thers are meant for the sky and so I'm 10

6

_ wi- shing wish-ing fur-ther for the ex- cite ment to ar- rive_ it's just I'd 14

ra-ther be cau-sing the cha-os than li-ving at the sharp end of this knife

18

With ev-ery small dis-as-ter I'll let the wa-ters still_ take me a - way to some place real_ cause they say home is where you heart is set in 28

23

Chorus

stone it's where you go when you're a- lone,_ it's where you go_ to rest your bones

32

_ It's not just where you lay your head, it's not just where you make your bed, as

37 Dmaj7 D(add9) D Dmaj7 D(add9) D A(sus4) D/F# G

long as we're to gether does it matter where we go? Home

42 Bm A(sus4) Bm

home home home

48 G Bm7

So when I'm ready to be bolder and my cuts have healed with time

53 G Bm7 3

Com-fort will rest on my shoul-der and I'll bu-ry my fu-ture be-hind and I'll

57 G Bm7

al-ways keep you with me you'll be al-ways on my mind but there's a

61 G Bm7 D.S. al Coda

shi-ning in the sha-dows I'll ne-ver know un-less I try

66 Bridge G Bm7 G

home home home

72 Bm7 G Bm7

Repeat chorus, then:

home home home

77 G Bm7

home home